

The GLPA Galileo Award

GLPA is the world's oldest and largest regional planetarium association. Our membership includes those who have gone on to become leaders in the national and international planetarium community as well. The Galileo Award, GLPA's highest honor, recognizes persons of exemplary leadership at the national and/or international level.

Persons to be nominated for this award need to be a GLPA member in good standing for at least consecutive 10 years. They are persons who have done exemplary work within GLPA and have carried this work beyond our borders. To nominate someone for this award, please fill out the form below and submit the form, plus 3 letters of recommendation (see below), to the current GLPA president.

Please write a brief paragraph or two explaining your reasons for nominating this person. Be sure to give examples of their accomplishments in GLPA and at the national/international level.

Please submit three letters of recommendation for your nominee along with this form. Only one of the three letters may be from a GLPA executive committee member. The other two letters may come from current GLPA members, but it is highly recommended that at least one of the letters come from a person outside the GLPA region. Mail this form, along with the letters of recommendation, to the current president. All nominations must be received no later than March 21st for full consideration.
