Editor's Note
Free different sources I keep hearing "everything is going well, the planetarium is busy, but not so busy as in the year of THE Comet." Well, I think such news is good news. It says we don't need Comet Bailey for another seasonal sky event to go about our business of teaching and teaching people about the universe. The beauty of a star-filled evening sky is there whenever clouds have dispersed and street and house lights can be avoided. The night sky, much easier to see than 1985 Comet Bailey, can always be a source of material for planetarium programs. It is nice, though to have a spectacular event, a comet, to focus on. It is nice, though to have a spectacular event, a comet, to focus on. It is nice, though to have a spectacular event, a comet, to focus on.

President's Message
1987 Tolsonson

Your Executive Committee had another marathon meeting in Merriville, Indiana. Minutes of that meeting are published elsewhere in this Newsletter. Some of the highlights are:

- GLPA no longer has the highest dues of any regional. Dues are higher.
- We will once again have insurance for the conference.
- Bart Benjamin is feverishly working on the 1989 Proceedings. They should be ready by the conference. Bart mailed the final draft in mid-May. A quality publication is expected.
- Dave Hoffman has accepted the post of 1989 Proceedings Editor. He has started work on transcription.
- April 1988 (address on back cover) is editing a new poetry 1988.
- April 1988 (address on back cover) is editing a new poetry 1988.
- April 1988 (address on back cover) is editing a new poetry 1988.

President's Message
1987 Tolsonson

As the GLPA expands service, it is no longer possible for the ten members of the Executive Committee to do all of the work. In the past, the Executive Committee has been able to do all of the work. In the past, the Executive Committee has been able to do all of the work. In the past, the Executive Committee has been able to do all of the work.
